

Merry Christmas

Season's Greetings

Dear Brother and Sister Scouts,

Never, in recent years have there been so many troubles (a year of wars, energy crises, natural catastrophes, etc.) so we need to warm our hearts and feel closer together, even if we are physically far away.

Scouting binds us with a double thread and we know that we have many friends and what unites us is our faith in our ideals, the Scout ideals. We know that every one of us believes in the values of the Scout Promise and the Scout Law and this comforts us.

Helping our brothers and sisters is something we are taught from an early age, our path is marked by friendship, loyalty and fraternity.

In this difficult year, we must try even harder to do our best to ensure that no one feels alone, that no one goes hungry, that no one suffers this Christmas, for whatever reason.

The holidays make us happier, so let us try to bring happiness to where it is needed and remember the words of our founder Baden-Powell when he said The real way to get happiness is by giving out happiness to other people.

Dear friends, the SC wishes you a happy and peaceful Christmas and new year.
